This is the 1958 SASSAMON, the year-book of the Natick, Massachusetts, High School. We start it on a happy note and continue it on a variety of notes.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1958 of the Natick High School, lovingly dedicate this, our Senior Yearbook, to Mr. William M. Carey, former Vice-principal of the Natick High School who was recently appointed Director of Secondary Education in the Natick schools.

Mr. Carey is a graduate of Natick High School and Boston College. He received his degree of Master of Education at Boston University. Shortly after graduation he joined the faculty of the Coolidge Junior High School. In 1940 he became a teacher in the English Department at the Natick High School and entered the service in 1942. He was released from active duty in 1946 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. In 1950 he was recalled and served until 1952. Shortly after his return he was named Vice-principal to succeed Mr. Ralph J. Martin. In January 1958 he became the first Director of Secondary Education.

During his years at Natick High School Mr. Carey has endeared himself to all those who have been members of this school. His friendly manner, keen wit, fairness and helpful interest in the welfare of all will long be remembered. We wish him great happiness and success in his new position.

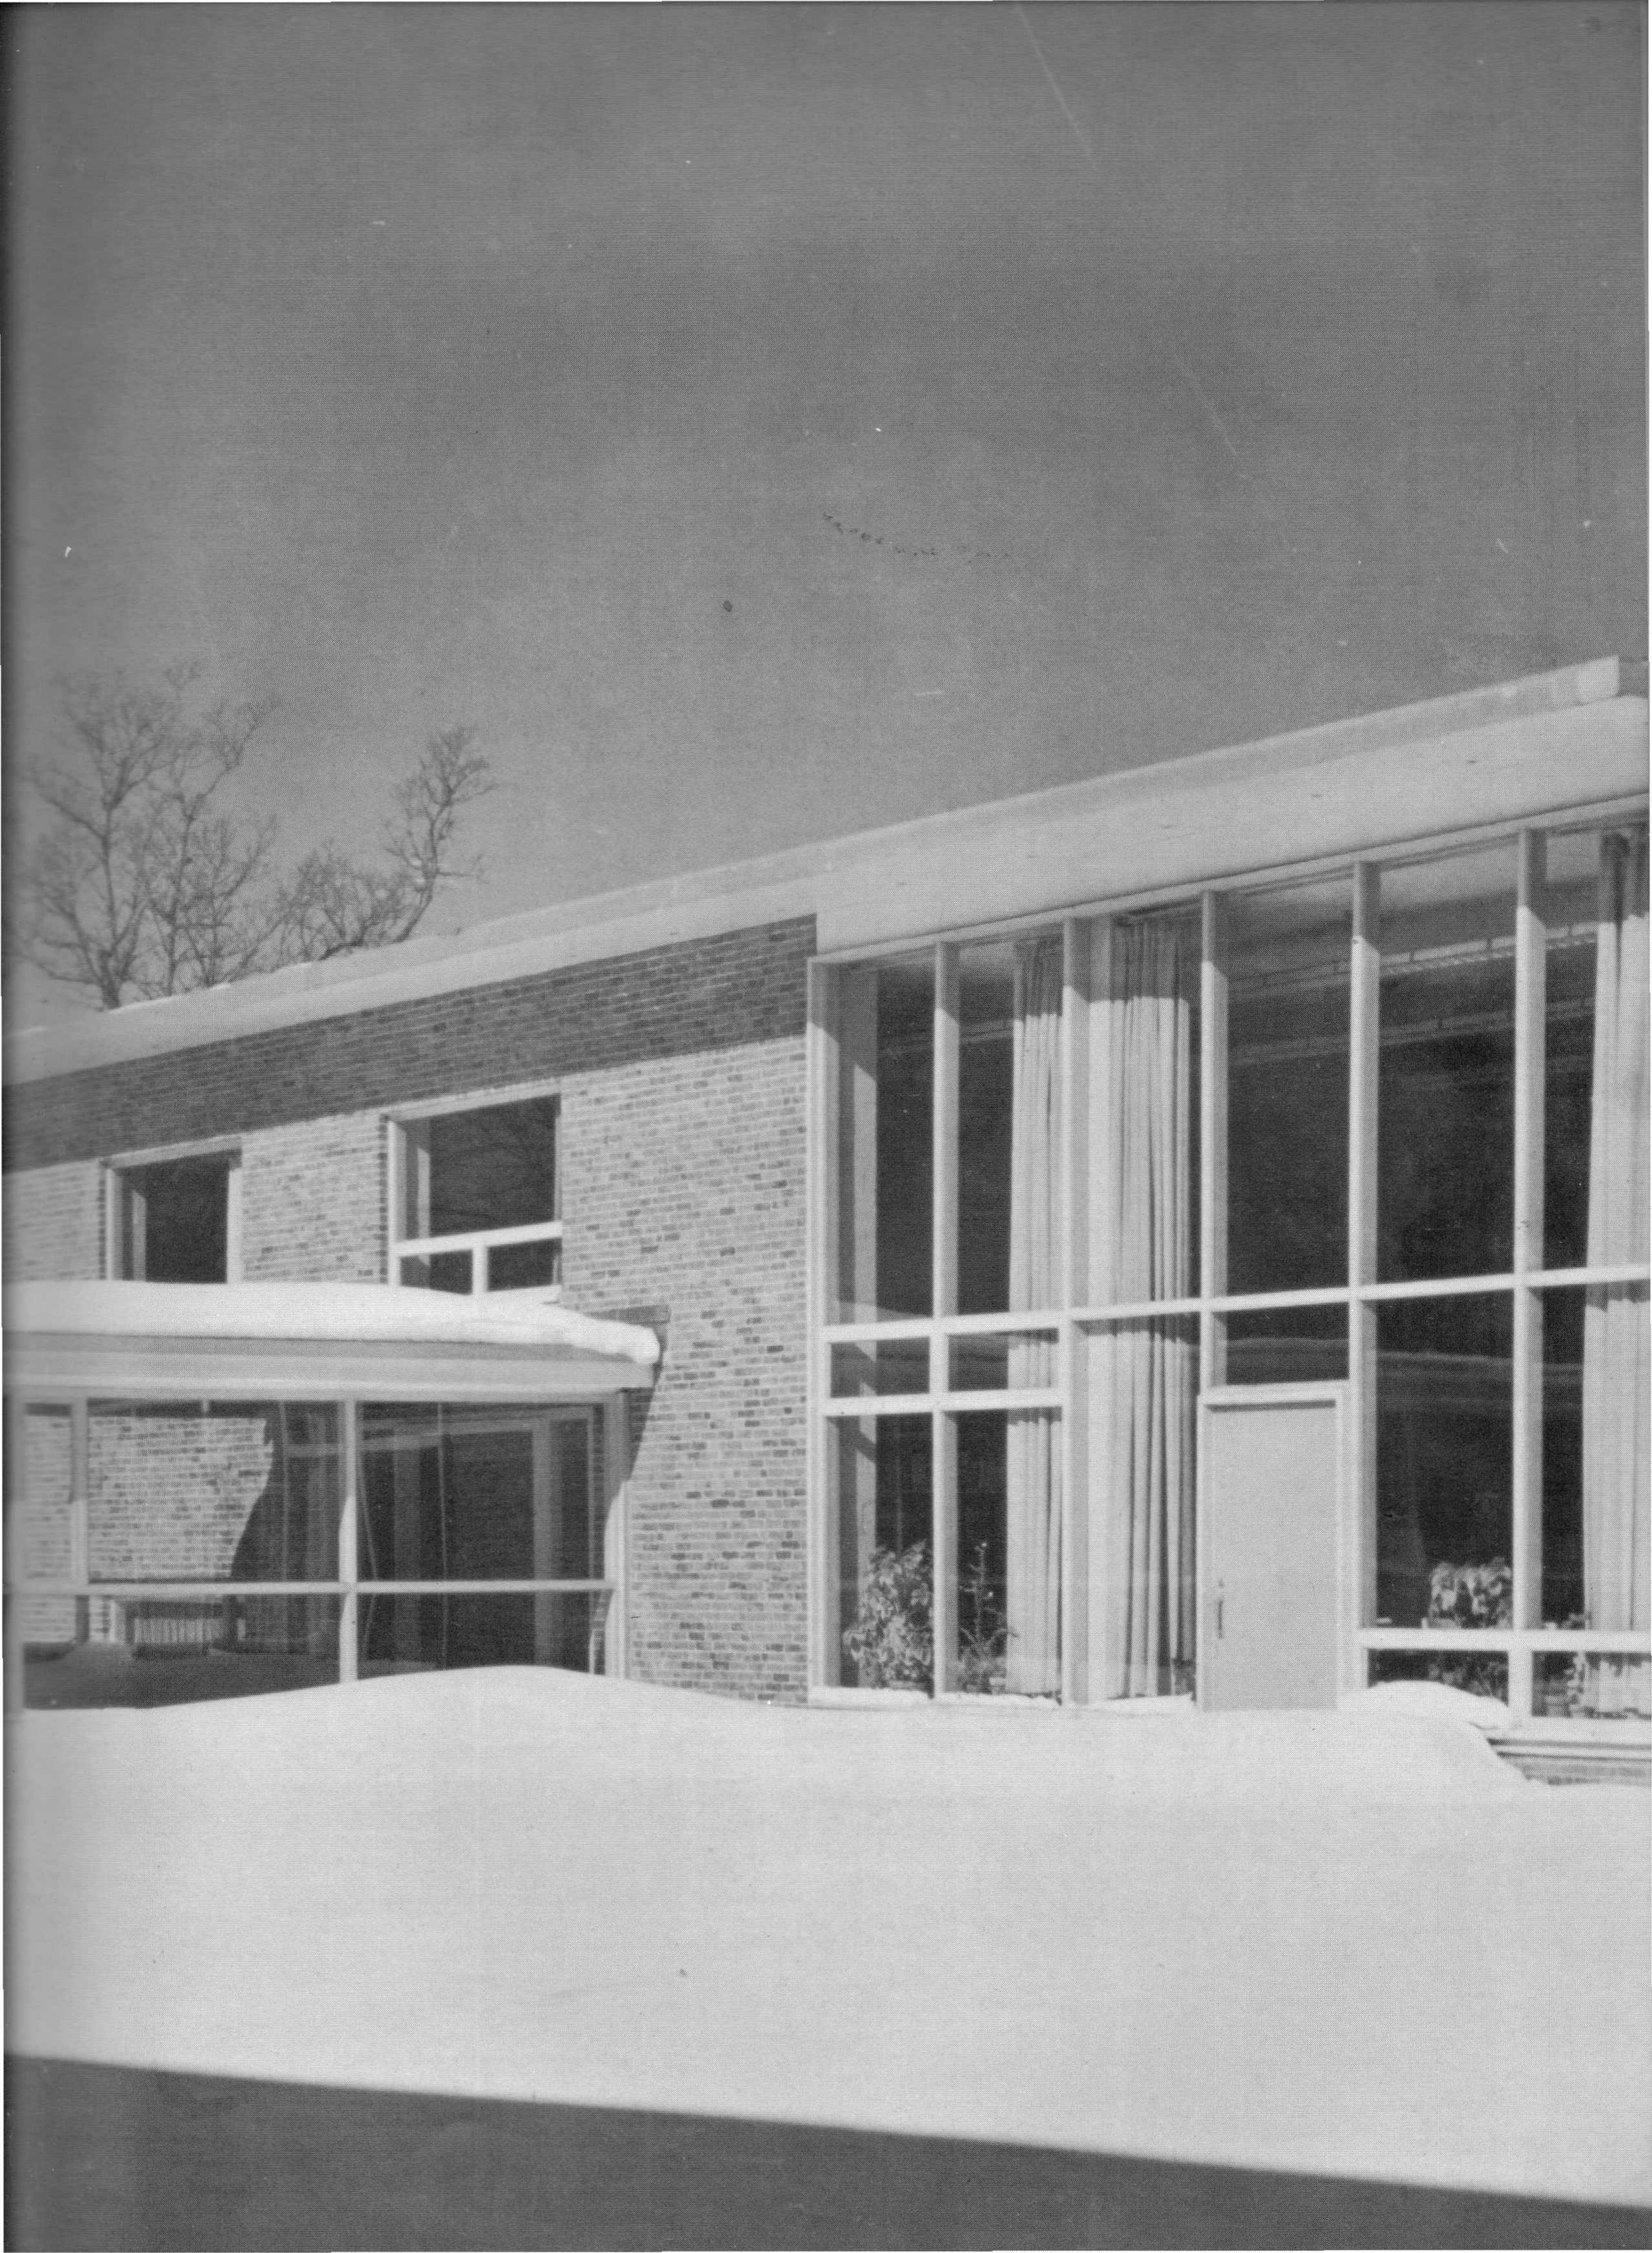

CLASS ADVISORS

The members of the Class of 1958 wish to express their appreciation to Miss Marion Pothier and Mr. Donald Gearon, their advisors, who have given unselfishly of their time and efforts to make the activities of this class outstanding in the history of Natick High.

MR. ALFRED A. MAFFEO

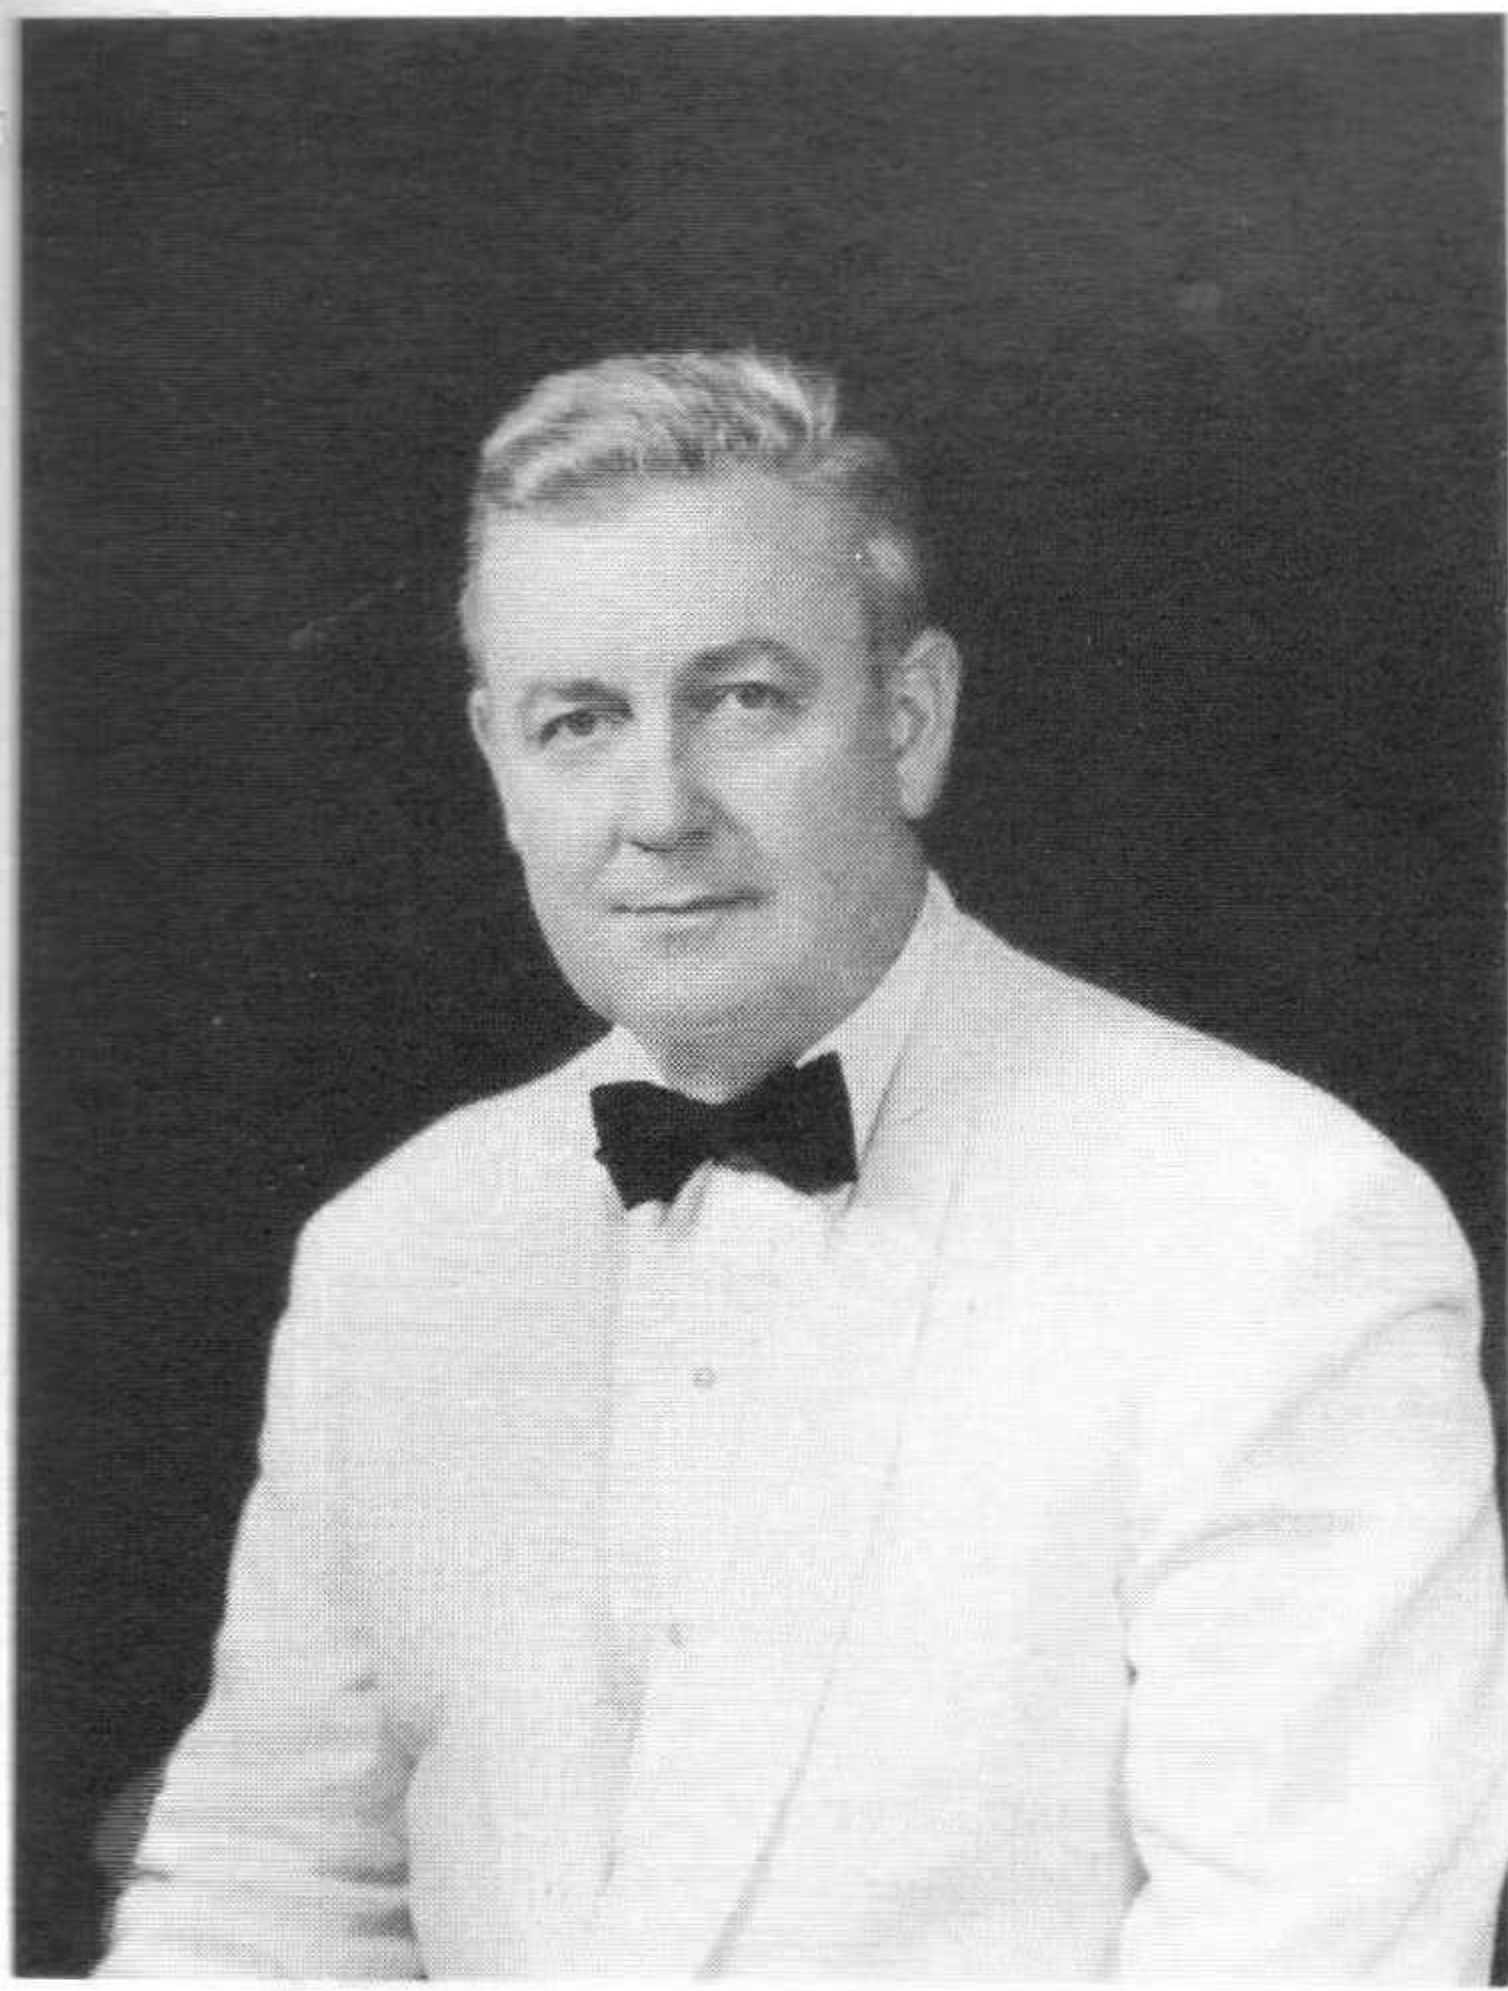

CONGRATULATIONS

The faculty and students of the Natick High School wish to extend their congratulations to Mr. Alfred A. Maffeo, our new Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. William M. Carey, Director of Secondary School Education.

We hope they will have many years of happiness and success in their new positions.

FAREWELL

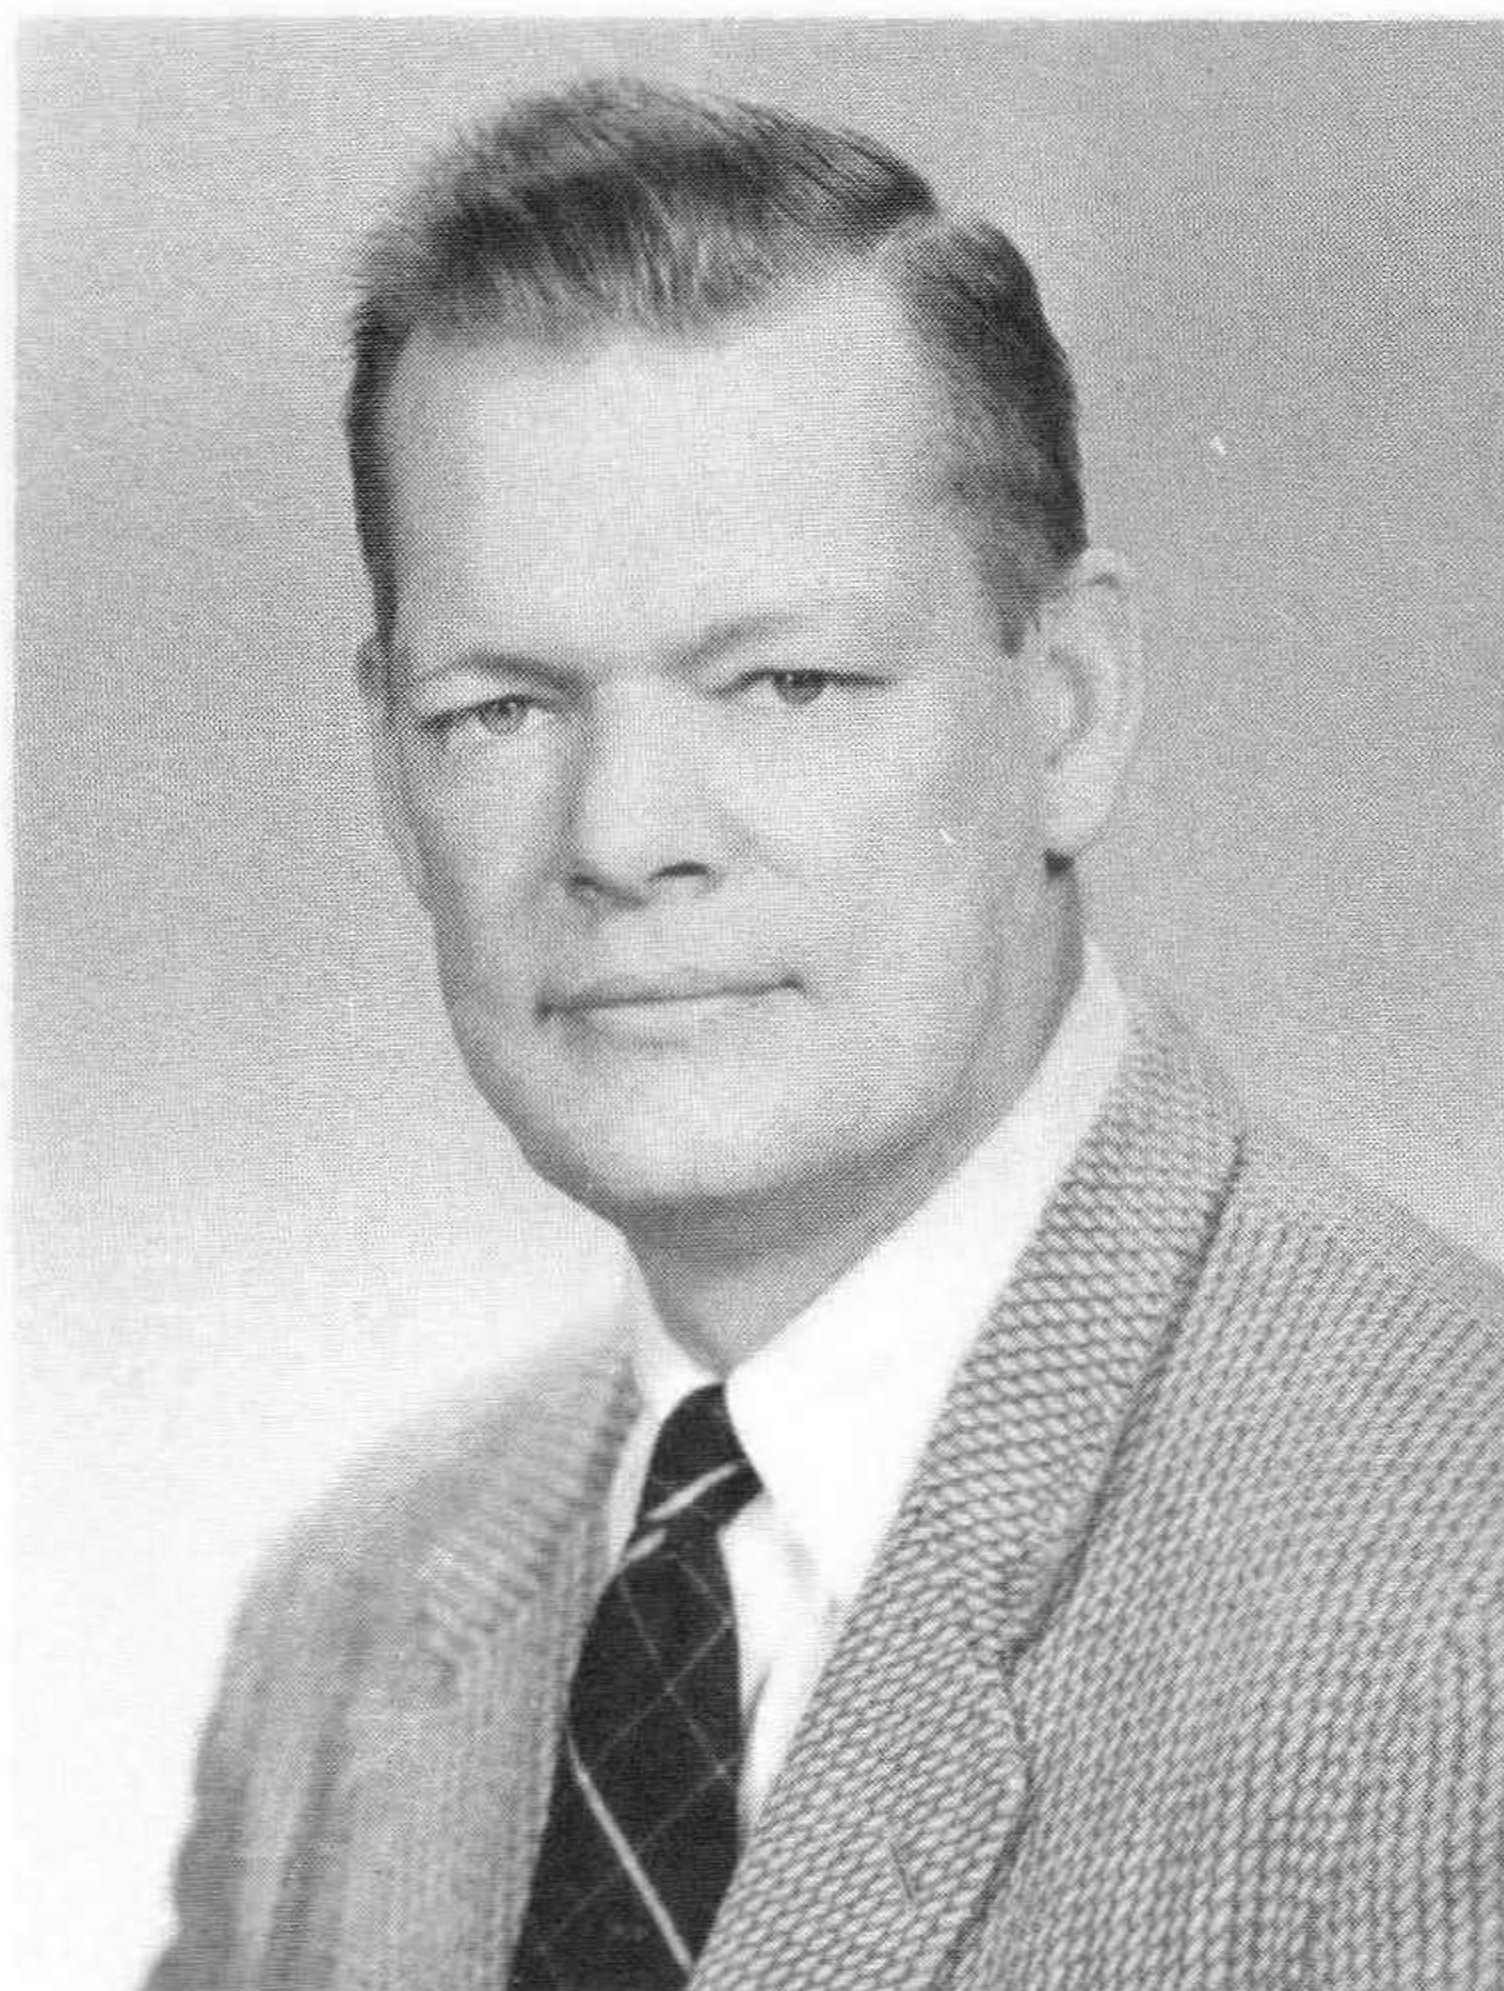

MR. E. DAVIS WOODBURY

MRS. SUSAN LUCKEY

MISS KATHLEEN W. YOUNG

COACH JOSEPH D. HOAGUE

MRS. ROSEMARY FANNON WRIGHT

Mr. E. Davis Woodbury, Superintendent of Schools at Natick for the past twelve years, left us in December to accept a similar position in Milton.

Mrs. Susan Luckey, former member of the Science Department, left us in December. She is now the proud mother of a small son.

Miss Kathleen W. Young, Head of the Language Department, and a teacher at N.H.S. for thirty-two years, retired in June. We wish her every happiness in her leisure.

Coach Joseph D. Hoague will become Director of Athletics at Melrose High in September. We hope his new charges will do as well as those he left.

Miss Rosemary Fannon is now Mrs. William Wright. She has resigned to become a housewife. Mr. Wright graduated from Harvard in June.

WELCOME-CLASS DAY

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

The members of the class of 1958 take pleasure in welcoming you here today to our Class Day Exercises. We should like to take this opportunity to thank you for the superior education you have made possible for us. You have provided us with the best in administrators, teachers, and equipment. If we have failed to take advantage of the opportunities you have offered us, we have only ourselves to blame.

Each of us will try to prove his appreciation and gratitude by taking a place in society as a useful, progressive, responsible citizen.

ALFRED LYNCH

WELCOME-GRADUATION

Parents, Teachers, and Friends:

It is an honor and privilege for me to welcome you this evening to these commencement exercises. We, the class of 1958, have completed twelve years in the Natick Schools.

We look forward to furthering our education or taking our places in the business world. You have given us so much for which we are very grateful; your time, patience, guidance, and most of all, your understanding.

We are very proud to be the first graduating class to spend its entire four years in this beautiful high school.

Indeed, we are fortunate to have been a part of the history of Natick High; and of the making of Natick and this great country of ours, America, a land of prosperous, peaceful, and free-thinking people.

As we enter our chosen fields, we know you will be watching us with great interest and we hope you always will be as proud of us as you are tonight.

CLASS OF 1958 — HISTORY

by Patricia Ann Proctor

This manuscript covers four of the most eventful years of our lives and is dedicated to our teachers, advisors, coaches, classmates, families and friends to whom we, the Class of 1958, are indebted for their unselfish devotion, unceasing advice, understanding and constant struggle to make us one of the best classes ever to be graduated from Natick High School.

In September 1954, we entered these sacred portals for the first time, after an extended vacation owing to the hurricane season. We were bashful, yet ambitious, little freshmen then, quite excited to be the first freshman class in this beautiful school.

After adjusting ourselves to the new and fascinating rotating schedule and attending the traditional "Welcome Dance", we all joined the upperclassmen in the spirit of campaigning and electing our class leaders; Susan Tozer, President; Nancy Tuthill, Vice-President; Kathy Bouret, Secretary; Fred Meyers, Treasurer — and our executive board to work under the direction of Miss Frances Toro and Mr. Harvey Michaels.

The first real decision made was to pay four dollars dues in our freshman year. It was really all right, as the monetary condition of each of us proved.

Our freshman football team, with a successful season, showed great promise for future years.

Before we knew it, Christmas vacation was over and returning to school we faced our first mid-year exams. Although there were many doubts, it is obvious we survived and began the last half of the year participating in spring sports, the Science Fair, and sponsoring our first social function, a "Freshman Dance", held in May.

Final exams brought to an end a year of "firsts".

July and August sped by quickly and re-entering our "shrine of learning" following another extended vacation because of the polio threat, we felt rather important — we were no longer freshmen. However, the wise and other-wise upperclassmen soon informed us of our mistake.

We were "old pros" not at election campaigning as we demonstrated our political and public speaking ability and talent. When the ballots were counted, we had elected Albert Lynch, President, and Judy Pease (who left Natick at the end of the year) as Secretary. Nancy Tuthill (who left Natick in the junior year) and Fred Meyers were re-elected to their respective offices.

In sports, our boys were now on the various junior varsity squads and in basketball some had the honor of being chosen for the varsity team.

As the year progressed we held the "Sophomore Class Dance" in January and after mid-year examinations, for which we were now more experienced, spring sports and the Science Fair attracted many members of our class, while the Executive Board and others were busy planning another very successful dance. Given the appropriate title "Starlight Dance", this was probably the most unique dance ever held at Natick High School, other than our Junior Prom, in that it took place out on the tennis courts under the stars.

In order to be able to start class activities immediately in the fall, the administration changed our class elections to May. This was a busy time of the year, but we managed to find time for campaigning and electing Dave Morgan, President; Helen Brown, Vice-President; Betsy Hickey, Secretary; and Fred Meyers, Treasurer, for another term, to lead us in our junior year.

At the same time members of the Executive Board were elected and a few of our classmates chosen to serve on the Safety Patrol.

The second year of our high school career ended with the final examinations and our looking forward to entering the ranks of upperclassmen in the fall.

Thus in September 1956, for the third time, we boldly entered the massive portals of Natick High School and bravely took the fight. Our duties and activities were steadily increasing and new and more difficult tasks confronted us.

Having already elected our slate of officers and executive board members, we immediately set to work under the guidance of Miss Frances Toro and Mr. Donald Gearan, who replaced Mr. Harvey Michaels as our advisor, to plan for our Junior Prom, bound to make it the best ever.

However, before we could get too involved an important debate developed concerning class rings and to make ours a true class ring we changed to the new "Continental Style". Feeling we weren't sufficiently occupied, we then brought the HallOwe'en spirit into the N.H.S. cafeteria with a "Witch Hazel" Dance.

During the football season our male classmates on the Natick Championship Team made an honorable appearance for our class and the prospects for our senior year were encouraging.

Likewise, in other sports of basketball, hockey, track, and baseball, the boys displayed their outstanding potential material.

On the scholastic side, many more honors were brought to Natick High School by Science Fair winners, Dorothy Crain and Edward Perry, who went to the Worcester Kiwanis Regional Fair, and Dorothy Crain, Patricia Proctor and Edward Thurber, who participated in the Mass. State Science Fair.

As the last months of the year drew near, elections of class officers and executive board members for the senior year were held and Suzanne Grass, Dave Morgan and Fred Meyers were elected to represent Natick at Girls' and Boys' State.

More students were chosen for the ever-present but unheeded Safety Patrol and William Anderson, David Nickles, Everett McCassey, Lynda Brown, Virginia Hayward, Helen Brown, and Patricia Proctor were honored by their induction into the Natick Chapter of the National Honor Society.

All this time, members of the class had been preparing, in secret, of course, the decorations for our Junior Prom-Senior Reception. A "Japanese Garden", its theme, turned out to be an affair enjoyed by everyone and one that will be long remembered. Only tonight will we know if it has been equalled.

Although difficult, we settled down once again for the last few days of school and the famous final examinations before vacation.

Before long we found ourselves again returning to Natick High School for our last furtive effort. We were SENIORS! What that meant to us all, as we shouldered the wheel for one more eventful year of the Class of 1958.

We had more serious, hazardous problems facing us and in order to master these and prove we would be the best class ever to graduate from this school, our class officers, Albert Lynch, President; Ronald Chisholm, Vice-President; Betsey Hickey, Secretary; and Fred Meyers, Treasurer, together with our executive board members and our advisors, Miss Marino Potheir, replacing Miss Toro, and Mr. Donald Gearon, immediately began the task of planning the class activities for this last year. Graduation seemed so very far away.

Our first obligation was to carry on the tradition of a Christmas Cotillion, which we did with the same success of the past class functions. Our "Bigger, Better, Buddha Builders" even converted our famous Junior Prom Buddha into Santa Claus.

While the athletes of our class under Captain Dave Morgan went sailing through the football season undefeated and winning the Bay State League Crown, our remarkable dramatists were practicing diligently under the direction of Mr. Harry Garnett and his assistants, Mrs. Susan Gray and Miss Patricia Buckley, to present one of the most successful class plays ever, "A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court". To many this was a most unusual time for a class play, since the past classes had presented theirs in the spring, but, after all, we're an unusual class. Actually, having it in the fall made it much easier for the seniors who are so busy with graduation plans in the spring and suffer frequently from a strange malady known as "SENIORITIS".

By this time, more of our classmates had joined the ranks of the National Honor Society; namely, Walter Ambler, Elaine Cantrel, Ronald Chisholm, Jane Forman, Janet Gray, Bernard Kilroy, Virginia Langhorst, Patricia Marshall, Marcia Silverman, and Arthur Williams. The last five per cent were yet to be chosen.

The winter sports teams were anxious to uphold the traditional "Home of Champions" title. Yes, our sportsmen in basketball, under the leadership of Co-captains Clayton Cox and Dave Morgan, placed second in the Bay State League with only two losses and accepting their Tournament bid went on to the finals losing only to a Belmont "powerhouse". I'm sure we will never forget that thrilling and eventful semi-final with Winchester.

The hockey team with captain and outstanding goalie Ronald Chisholm surprised everyone by taking the Eastern Massachusetts Hockey League Championship and entering the State Hockey Tournament.

Never to be forgotten are our hard-working and spirited cheerleaders, who placed second also in their competition, and all of the loyal Natick High School fans and townspeople who supported our activities and sporting events throughout these four years with that true and never-failing "Natick Spirit".

Returning after Christmas vacation congratulations were in store for our new administration. We were sorry to hear that Mr. E. Davis Woodbury was leaving Natick and that as a result Mr. Alfred A. Maffeo and Mr. William Carey would be leaving us. However, our congratulations and best wishes went to them all and to our new principal Mr. Howard Hennigar and our new Vice-principal Mr. Lawrence Bartnick in their new positions.

Time was certainly fleeting and with the exchange of class pictures, spring sports, the Science Fair, college acceptances and an innumerable list of other activities it was not difficult to realize that graduation was not too far off. Among our class representatives there was some discussion of whether or not we should hold another dance to supplement our treasury funds for Senior Week activities.

Such awards as the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award to Betsy Hickey, the Brotherhood Award to Arthur Williams and the vote of the class to make Frey Meyers our Good Government Day Representative had now been made. Anticipation and excitement was mounting until finally Senior Week was here!

After a week full of many exciting and memorable events together, we have gathered today for the traditional Class Day exercises. Our Junior Prom-Senior Reception will climax a wonderful week. On Monday evening our graduation will be the end of the history of a class that has the distinction of being the first to attend all four years of classes in this school. As we stand in the doorway looking down the long, mystical hallway to the future and an even greater history, we will never forget this history of the Class of 1958.

CLASS SONG

Words by SUZANNE GRASSE

Music by MICHAEL KONOWITZ

While through our tears,
 We see the years passing on in rapid review
 To memories true we say adieu
 And with a sigh depart.
 To the friends we've made, the sports we've played
 The winning Red and Blue.
 Oh, how can we say farewell today?
 Our hearts remain with you.

CLASS ESSAY

THE CHALLENGE OF WORLD LEADERSHIP

David Nickles

Tonight, our public education comes to a close and we, the members of the class of 1958, will go forth to find our place in life. The world we face today is in a period more unsettled and perilous than at any other time in history. The earth is now divided into two armed camps, waiting for the spark that could touch off World War III.

At the present time, the leadership of the United States in world affairs has been seriously challenged by a nation with a way of life so alien to ours that the two are incompatible. We must meet this threat or perish! The challenge is total, including our spiritual, intellectual, material, and military accomplishments. The outcome of this test will affect mankind for centuries to come.

We, the youth of America, must devote our utmost endeavors to the winning of the present Cold War. It matters little whether we decide to further our education, enter the business world, enlist in the armed forces, or start our own home, we can all contribute something toward the preservation of our democracy, even if it is just a better knowledge of the problems which face our nation. In the dark and perilous months following Pearl Harbor, it was the youth of our land who saved our freedom. Today, in a less drastic but equally important manner, we must defend ourselves and our nation from Soviet Russia, a despotic police state which has repeatedly pledged itself to our destruction.

I believe that the major reason why the Russians have been able to advance to the point where they can challenge our very existence is American complacency and apathy. At the close of World War II, the United States was unquestionably the strongest nation in the world. Instead of keeping our guard up against the Soviet threat, we ignored it, demobilizing our armed forces and atomic bomb programs, while the Soviets kept theirs on a wartime basis. We neglected the important fact that the price of freedom is eternal vigilance. Russia took advantage of our apathy by violating their World War II agreements, forcing the nations of the Balkans and Eastern Europe behind the Iron Curtain.

By the time the American public realized what had happened, it was too late for action.

In the past, the American public has been complacent in regarding Soviet science and technology. We must no longer consider Russia to be just a land of backward peasants. After Hiroshima, most American scientists predicted that it would be ten to fifteen years before the Russians built a successful atomic bomb. It took the Russians four years. The first Russian hydrogen bomb was exploded only nine months after the first American thermonuclear test. However, much of the American public refused to see the handwriting on the wall, saying "But we were first."

Then on October 4, 1957, the United States was not first, for Sputnik I, not Vanguard I, was the first successful earth satellite. Finally, the shell of complacency and apathy behind which the American public had been hiding was beginning to crack. These cracks were further widened by the launching of the eleven hundred pound dog-carrying Sputnik II. Then, when the public heard of the dangerous developments in our defense system, they began to demand action. They blamed the scientists, the military, and the government for our failures, neglecting the fact that the public's unwillingness to pay taxes for research, national defense and other vital programs was a major factor in our lag in the satellite and missile field.

Now is the time for every American to make his decision. Do we want luxuries or liberty? Lower taxes or a free society? This time we were fortunate in being warned. There may be no second chance. Every nation now behind the Iron Curtain had its freedom-loving people who believed that they could never be conquered. We must not fall into the same position. If we want our nation to survive, we must wake up, realize the problems that face us, and work to eliminate them. This will not be an easy task, but I am confident that once we put our minds to meeting this challenge, no power on earth can stop us.

CLASS PROPHECY

by LYNDA BROWN
JANI FORMAN
EVERETT McCASSEY

"Come to th' fair! Getcha tickets hea," shouts barker Paul Hughes attracting attention in his red vest. Beside him is ticket seller, Harvey Newman.

An attractive group of usherettes, headed by Connie Bennett, is seen conducting the many people to the exhibits. Mary Morrill and Rose Secondino guide a group toward the art exhibit, where paintings by famous artists, Richard Marcy, Ted Robbins, William Hansbury, and Carole Reckendorf are displayed. A collection of vivid portraits by Bohemian artist, Nancy McKnight, including those of David Brown, Yo-Yo manufacturer — hyena tamer, Debbie Spooner, and millionaire playboy, Phil Foulke attract the attention of art critic, Heather Glunts. Judy Buell and Connie Capisto display their unique antiques as well as a charming statuette, sculptured by Bill Lloyd.

Beyond the art display is a shooting gallery, managed by Ron Chisholm and Jerry Johnson, where game warden, Bob Peterson and N.H.S.'s spirited librarian, Joan Deery are attempting to knock over the duck. None succeed until Capt. Carol Cummings of the WAC's strolls by and gives a simple demonstration of skill, leaving patrolmen, Thomas McGrath and Dan Brady wide-eyed with amazement.

We hear voices from various corners of the fair: Francis Shea yelling, "Test your strength with the Atom Smasher. See if you can top Dave Lynch's record!" Bill Barry shouting, "Prize if I can't guess your weight!" (We see Jane Bambrick with a very red face and a cupie doll.) Bill Clark and Paul Casey cry, "Get the newest flavor Jello here. It's licorice, discovered by the ingenuity of Miss Dorothy Crain." Frank Whittaker loudly expounds on the wonders of his odd-shaped balloons to police-women, Lolita Knowles and Carol Petrino.

In front of the fortune teller's booth is Marci Silverman, cutting silhouettes of tree surgeon, Diane Jeffrey and movie star, Jim Kenneally for his fan club president, Mary Kenneally.

Inside the booth, Joan Consodine, in a mysterious whisper, tells Sandra Dunbar, Claire Bigelow, and Marcia Wiles, "You are about to take a big step," and to Bob Canoni, she says, "Put all your cards on the table and take that one MAD chance."

Usherettes, Carol Spadoni and Ruth Howard lead us toward the homemaking exhibits. Sergeants Bruce and John Hedderig of the U. S. Army, Bruce Pratt, Boston Census Taker, and Richard Gibbons, druggist are gathered around the platform where James Balducci is announcing the winners of the baking contest, "It is the decision of the judges, Paul Hale, Carolyn Stevens, and dietician, Jeanne Petrie, that prizewinners are Marianne Martin, for her eggless omlette, Clifford Kelman for his upside-right cake, Vivyan Lucier, for her chic-pudding-lette and Donald Rokes for his ginger peachy blueberry-rhubarb pie."

Next, Richard Whalen, President of Models Inc., steps up to the microphone and narrates the display of the winning fashions. "First we have a "bague" dress modeled by Judith Armitage, designed by Ann King, made by Susanna Montalbano, with frog-skin pocketbook by Barbara Mosteck. Next is Joan Bellefontaine modeling a flower-petal gown created by Carole Cutaia and sewn by Carol O'Dea. Jewelry is by Betsy Stone. Something new in formal wear made by Carol Varrichone from a design by Lynda Brown is modeled by Bruce Carter — a lilac tuxedo with plaid trim. Other creations were modeled by Jean Cotter, Jeanne Donohue, and Carol Mandino.

Beauticians Beverly Graham, Margaret Gonnerman, and Pat Mallek have worked feverishly to style Sue Grasse's hair in the mode created by Jacqueline Teece — the Lasangna Look. Seated on the stage are judges Katy Hartigan, Gail Venezia and Sandra Rowe. We would like to thank fashion consultant Judith Hopf, and Virginia Hayward, editor of "Sassy Mode" Magazine for their expert assistance, and Roz Zacher and Mary Terry for aiding with the make-up.

About this time everybody begins to feel hungry, making a rush for the tiny stand where Vin Culcasi and Louis Nickinello are rapidly turning out pizzas and grinders to meet the requests of honky-tonk pianist Mike Konowitz, tap dancer Jim McKenna, and Stephen Repella of Repella Repellants, Inc. At the Donald Crawford Freeze, waitress June Cummings and waiter, David Nickles are serving multi-colored cones. Joe Holston's candy concession is also doing well, although the salesgirl, Doreen Tucker refuses to sell anything but "O-Henry" bars.

The children, meanwhile, are joyfully riding the merry-go-round, skillfully run by Bernie Kilroy and the "whip" operated by Paul Lougee, while eating the cotton candy sold by Nancy Brown.

The attention of the crowd is now drawn to the center of the fairground where Al Lynch is attempting to speak from a platform. "As the Persident of the Natick Fathers' Club, I am happy to welcome all you folks to Natick's first County Fair. I would like to thank all the committees and their chairmen for helping make this Fair possible: Sue Tozer and Bruce Johnson on the Food Committee; Roberta Barry and Peggy Sikora — Planning; Gail Murray and Maxine Langlois — Decorations; Bill Michael and Arthur Fahey — Publicity; and most of all, Francis Deane and his Clean-up Committee. I will now put the program in the capable hands of your M. C. Boyd Walser. "Greetings, people and ladies. We are most honored to have with us today, the (night) Mayor of this fine city, Albert M. K. Butler; William Anderson, Dean of South Natick Institute; distinguished citizen and banker, Fred Meyers; scientist Patricia Proctor, known for her discovery of a new germ; Everett S. McCassey, noted psychoanalyst and obstetrician; David Morgan, who has been awarded a trophy as "Best All-American Baby-Sitter;" Vincent Arminio, receiver of the highest honor bestowed upon a soldier of fortune — a "Gibbon Ribbon"; Edward Thurber, who has returned from the moon colony in order to attend the Fair; Edward Perry, author of "The Same Old Disorder" and the famous writer of the "Dear Alice" column, Miss Broders, and diplomat Andris Serzans."

We've lined up some terrific talent for you folks today. Skilled pianists Grace Arena and Ann Armata will accompany singers Judy Rubin, Bruce Yuffee, Marilyn Collins and Linda Cole. Here are the rest of the performers in order of their appearance: "Elvis" James Omerso and his guitar singing Pandy Mele's latest composition, "What? Me Worry?"; an awe-inspiring rattlesnake charming act by Paul Shavor; a sextet composed of Alex Dobacheski, Ron Faldetta, Charlie McIntosh, Vic Gesbelin, Linwood MacIlvaine, and Burt MacGregor; Pat Marshall reciting a poem by Charlie Fitch, "Elegy on the Death of a Diet"; Comediennes Judy Bloom, Sue DeFazio, and Jane Provasoli in a skit written by Jani Forman, entitled "Playtown Place"; an acrobatic act by the Bellofatto Brothers, Harold and Robert; and Carol Noonan, the internationally known roller skater."

Usherettes Carol Bradford and Sylvia Morrell guide us to a TV demonstration by WRAC, owned by Bob SanClemente. Cameraman Lear Levin and his assistants Ed Mason and Don Breda, as well as script girls, Gail Peoples and Carol Fournier, and Jim Chandler with sound effects, gear are rushing madly about preparing for the show of the year on "Playhouse '58" — "Romeo and Juliet" by an all male cast, directed by Arthur "Cecil" DeMelle, and starring Tom Scheufele and Joe Carnaroli. The supporting cast consists of Fred Chester, Dick Stockwell, Clayton "Butch" Cox, and lastly Alan Schneider, who starred in "Robin Hood" last week. This program is also broadcast on radio by Al King and Fred Collins. "Playhouse '58" is sponsored by James Goldrick Refrigerators which are demonstrated today by Barbara Mohler.

Usherettes Nancy Pineo and Elaine Gleason direct us to the bus driven by Leo Ryan, taxis driven by Dennis Hand, Danny Elson, and Bill Cochran, and a bright red fire engine run by Helen Brown, which are waiting to take us to the contests.

The winner of last years contest, with the title of biggest bubblegum blower, Jean Howe, will judge the contest assisted by Bev Bruneau, Brenda Bell, and Carolyn Bartlett. Competing against each other are Betsy Hickey's second grade and the children from the orphan home directed by Carol McManus. It has just been announced that John Bouzan has surrendered his pie-eating title to Henry Waterman. Another announcement: Bill Flynn and Bruce MacDonald have just won the egg rolling contest.

Watching the weight-lifting contest are foreign correspondent Elaine Cantrel, Pepsi Cola taster Don Hibbert, Language expert Evelyn Symonds, and telephone operator Marilyn Swenson. The weight lifters are Lana Hathorne, Larry Wardwell, Janet Garvey, Doris Garabedian, and Bernie Glynn. Virginia Langhorst of Associated Press is rapidly taking notes on the event.

Usherettes Sandra Gough, Carol Horan, and Marie Gorman just came to tell us that Tim Clifford won the relay race single-handedly. The typing contest is already in progress when we arrived. Trying to beat Janet Grey's record of 729.563 words per minute are Janet Ahearn, Carol Baker, Richard Kelly, Annette Marinelli, James Splane, and Joanne Salvati. John Reynolds is timing the typist.

Here comes Carol Murphy leading the parade of cowboys, including Jim Tanner, Ernest Bearor, and Al "Sonny" Johnson; cowgirls, Gale Dimitri and Priscilla Coan, on horses lent by the Betty Whitehouse Riding Academy; followed by Brian Walsh on the elephant which he captured on his recent safari; the band, consisting of John Bowles, with both clarinet and saxophone, Joe Augustini — accordion, Sharon Burke — flute, Richard Johnson — trumpet, and Joan Mitchell — cymbals.

Unfortunately Congressman, Arthur Williams was "unavoidably detained" due to his pressing duties (baby kissing) according to his bodyguard, FBI agent, Tony Zacconi, who will take his place in the parade. Also in the platinum Cadillac rented from Frank Chiumento, are: major leaguer, Jack Hassard and Stanley Wentworth, builder of the new Doug Pond bridge, and Wendell Morgan, voted one of the Ten Best-Dressed Men.

The boat racing event is eagerly anticipated by all. The contestants are: Ernest Dewis, Tom McDonald, Jackie Phillips, Marcia Read, and Gail Ambler. Seated in the reviewing stand we see: Admiral Richard Gassett; Richard Longo, who donated two of the boats to be used; missionary, from Utopia, Gary Norman and Sister Mary O'Connell.

Veterinarian Ruth McGilvray motions for us to come to the auto race. Mechanic, Ed Johnson is warming up the cars. Watching as Bernard Sandow shoots off the starting gun are: sports-minded golf-pro Dick George; hockey coach Dotty MacPherson and truant officer, Donald Whalen. Joel Fletcher waves the flags wildly as Fred Callahan wins the race.

On the platform, we see square dance caller Dottie Plausse. Dancing instructor Slade Walter is having trouble getting Richie Corbin to eliminate his Cha-lypso swing.

The fair is brought to an abrupt close when the community song led by Kathy Bouret is caught in a sudden downpour, previously predicted by weatherman Walter Ambler and his assistant Janice Winters. People depart hurriedly, leaving Memorial Fair-ground once again a muddy football field.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1958, whose mighty records, both scholastic and athletic, speak for us, the indisputably greatest, most outstanding class ever to dwell in the hallowed halls of Natick High, do sadly leave this, our Last Will and Testament.

Mr. William Carey, our new Supervisor of Secondary Education, we appoint as executor to carry out the terms of this will.

To Mr. Maffeo, we leave our gratitude for being such a wonderful principal and our best wishes for great success in his position as Superintendent of Schools.

To Mr. Hennigar, to keep our new principal in his happy mood, we are installing a music system, which will continuously play the Spike Jones's laughing record.

To Mr. Bartnick, we leave a "Nancy Drew Detective Kit" to aid him in tracking down missing students.

To Miss Young, the class of 1958 hopes to have left the most colorful and interesting page in her book of memories of Natick High School. We sincerely hope that she has enjoyed teaching here as much as we have enjoyed having her.

In honor of Miss Shannon, to reimburse her for all the time she has spent working on our Yearbook and many other activities, we, the class of 1958, formally inaugurate a 13th month called "Shanuary".

To Mr. Brown, our nurse, we leave a crystal ball to aid her in deciding which students are ill and which are faking.

To Miss Dalton, we leave a pair of tap shoes so that her unwary students may hear her coming.

To Mr. Shea, we leave a lifetime supply of cough drops so that he won't have to clear his throat so often. Ah-hem!

To Mr. Filledes, in recognition of his work on the Safety Patrol, we, the members, present him with the symbol of the power of office, a hand-carved, non-skid doorstep.

To Miss Hope, we leave a book of crossword puzzles so that she'll have something to do "in her spare time".

To Miss Harrington, we leave a large supply of black arm bands to be distributed annually on the Ides Of March.

To Miss Donahoe, for keeping her many pairs of shoes in order, we leave a red, and blue shoe rack.

To Miss Pothier and Mr. Gearon, we leave our heartfelt thanks for all the work they did for us in helping to plan our class activities, including our stupendous Junior-Senior Prom and our pacesetting Yearbook; for being their cheerful selves always; and above all, for encouraging the "Bigger Better Buddha Builders" of our class.

We, the senior girls, express our gratitude to Miss Mussmacher and Miss Tillson for attempting to make us sound in body, at least.

We, the members of the Driver Training classes, leave to our instructors, Mr. Slamin, Mr. Goddard, and Mr. Woodhams, genuine gold-plated medals inscribed, "For bravery and heroism above and beyond the call of duty".

I, Ronnie Chisholm, in behalf of the hockey team donate for display in the trophy case a puck autographed by all the players, coaches, and "Joe Cigar".

To the Juniors, we leave the long-awaited title of "Senior" complete with the great privilege of leading the "Yea, senior, yea, class" cheer during the lunch period.

To the Sophomores, we leave the honor of being upperclassmen and the wish that your junior year will be as memorable and as successful as ours.

To the Freshmen, we leave our favorable verdict that you have successfully passed your probation period and are now fully qualified to be considered members of Natick High.

The following would like to make these personal bequests:

I, Dave Morgan, leave to the coaches and to Natick High the privilege of observing one minute of silence whenever the name of such a talented as I is mentioned.

I, Bruce Carter, leave my gavel and privilege of saying "Please rise on the chord," to next year's Student Council President.

I, Charlie Fitch, Slade Walter, and Vin Arminio, leave with this parting cry "Vive La Runk!"

We, the Barry twins, Roberta and Billy, leave the privilege of not only being a "Main Attraction", but a "Double Feature", to Richard and David Brown.

I, Eddie Perry, leave to Peter Martell, one of my many original inventions, the Automatic Practical Joker, with the hope that he gets "a large charge" out of it.

I, Artie Williams, leave my large library of classics (comic books, that is) to that aspiring young English student, Dickie Wells.

We, Pat Marshall, Betty Whitehouse, and Joan Considine, leave our greasepaint to Kathy Owens and Bunky Hunter, and sadly close the curtain on our high school acting careers.

I, Bernie Kilroy, leave to Jerry Hall my ability to blush at a moment's notice. (If you look now, you'll see what I mean!)

We, Janet Grey and Connie Capisto, leave our Honor Society and G.A.A. notes to anyone fortunate enough to know shorthand.

We, Jimmy Splane and Paul Hughes, leave our colorful attire including red, pink, and purple trousers to Ronnie Harlow, hoping that he will be courageous enough to follow our splendid examples.

I, Sue Tozer, leave my unpredictable car "Knelly" (K-N-E-L-L-Y) to anyone with either a super-abundance of mechanical aptitude or a large supply of glue.

We, Judy Hopf and Nancy McKnight, leave our southern accents — (Were from South Natick) — to Madeline Barnicle and Jeff Belisle.

I, Annette Marinelli, leave my magic shorthand pencil to Jean Ghalani.

I, Bob Canoni, leave my green eyeshade, rubber thumb, and cash register to Richard Powers.

I, Jackie Phillips, leave the honor of having the shiniest black hair in the class to Virginia Snow.

I, "Lil'l Sue" Grass, leave the beans everyone threatens to eat off the top of my head to Alan Loane. He's eaten everything else!

We, the Johnsons, Alfred, Bruce, Eddie, Gerry, and Richard, leave after setting a new high — five of a kind.

I, Fred Meyers, leave to Bruce Peterson the secret of my financial success, a personally autographed copy of the book, "Ways and Means to Save Money" by Silas Marner.

I, E. Stanley McCassey, leave my affinity for the depths of Dug Pond to next year's baseball manager.

I, Cec DeMelle, leave my brother "Skip" to carry on the good name of DeMelle, with the fond hope that some day he'll fill my size 14 shoes.

I, Ruthie McGilvray, leave my title of the "Most Gullible" to Kathy O'Brien, and hope that she will continue my unrewarded search for plaid paint.

We, James Kennealy, Dick Marcy, Dick Stockwell, and Frank Shea leave the results of combined efforts in Consumer Math to the wastebasket.

I, Boyd Walser, leave the honor of being a person everyone "looks up to" to Ronald Therieau.

We, Butch Cox and Tom McGrath, being of sound mind, leave our membership in the Cat Hill Society to Joe Fahey and John Dowst.

We, Carol McManus, Bill Anderson, Dotty Plausse, and Connie Bennett, leave our completely unaccountable ability to get along with certain members of the faculty to Brad Leavitt, Jimmy Andrews, and Hap Hennigar.

I, Sue DeFazio, leave to Lynn Woods, my Hoodsie contract with the cafeteria and permission to use my favorite expression, "Well, what do ya want, a Hoodsie?"

We, John Bowles, Al Butler, Frank Chuimento, and Mike Kono-witx, the musicians, leave the reputation of being noteworthy in every measure, always sharp and never flat, and our ability to keep together between bars, of music, that is, to Harold Wright, Ronnie Muise, and Dave Buckingham.

I, Kathy Bouret, leave everyone at Natick High wondering where I get all my energy and I now confess my secret — I eat my Maypo!

I, Louie Nickinello, leave my green Merc to anyone fast enough to catch it.

I, Helen Brown, leave a free ticket for a ride on a fire engine to Karen Kugell.

I, Diane Jeffrey, leave one large wad of my bubbleless bubble gum to Alice Ward, hoping that she'll cherish it as much as I do.

I, Ginny Langhorst, leave my field hockey ability, equipment, bumps, bruises, and bangs to June Breda.

I, Richie Corbin, leave a map of the United States and my complete and entire knowledge of geography to a South Natick explorer, James Fallon.

I, Henry Waterman, leave my beautiful curly hair to be divided equally between, George Williams and Alan Ross.

I, Joe Augustini, leave my shillelagh and honorary membership in the Sons of Ireland to Christy Adams.

I, Al "Tarzan" Lynch, leave to Richie Anderson the secret of my rugged physique — a Handy, Dandy pocket edition of the best-selling exercise book, "I Was a 98-lb. Weakling" by Dr. Guy Leighton.

I, Jeanne Petrie, leave with these closing words, "May I please have a ride home?"

We, all the seniors not mentioned personally, leave to all the juniors likewise not mentioned, our honors, abilities, and qualities — also not mentioned.

In witness, whereof, we, the members of the Class of 1958, have set our hand and seal hereto this fifth day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand nineteen hundred fifty-eight, declaring this to be our Last Will Testament.

FAREWELL ADDRESS

WILLIAM J ANDERSON, JR.

During the past few months there has been considerable criticism and closer analysis of our educational system. In magazines, on radio and TV, and in the newspapers the experts have been pointing out to the failings and shortcomings of our schools. What are we, the graduating class of 1958, going to do about this so-called deplorable situation? Are we prepared to meet the challenge? If so, what should we do?

First, we should be willing to make sacrifices. As future voters and taxpayers we shall have to spend more of our tax dollars for education if we are to have better schools and larger faculties.

We should encourage the study of foreign languages. Unfortunately, today some of our students are shying away from languages. Though everyone may not have the opportunity to speak the languages he has learned, he will have broadened his knowledge and understanding of the world in his study of them, which is an important factor in life today.

As a result of the rapidly advancing Space Age we are constantly being reminded of the need for more science in school curricula. In the past year science has come to have paramount importance. We must provide enough science in our secondary school to draw the interest of the average student and give challenging material to the exceptional student.

Science and languages have always been closely related, for the European scientific journals are printed not in English, but in German or Russian. Thus we see another very important reason for studying languages. A scientist must also be a linguist to learn all that he must know.

We must also encourage higher education if we are to use the full potential of our country. We must have the means of giving a college education to all those who merit one. Unfortunately, lack of funds is limiting college enrollment, and many capable students are being turned down. As the number of applicants rises, so also must the standard of acceptance rise. Here again we can help by giving more financial aid to education.

As future parents it will be our duty to instruct our children and awaken in them an interest and a desire for knowledge. But before we instruct our children, we must have the desire and the knowledge ourselves.

Those of us who are going on to college have a wonderful opportunity to make the best of our abilities. We must, in the next four years, use this opportunity to its greatest advantage if we are to do justice to ourselves.

On the other hand, we must be careful to keep things in proportion in education. We should not overstress science; we are not trying to develop a nation of scientists. Our schools must continue to teach students primarily to become responsible, intelligent, well-informed citizens. We must teach them to express themselves and to think clearly. Students must still learn to appreciate the beauty of art and literature, as well as the order of science.

But all the education in the world will not help us if we simply don't care about what is happening around us. We must all think clearly and maturely about the problems of today. We should keep ourselves well-informed on current events so that we may form our own opinions about national and international affairs.

Lastly, in facing the world we must become neither too pessimistic nor too optimistic. We have always had problems, and we always will. Today's problems will be solved as have those of the past, but the solution takes time. We must never forget our spiritual responsibilities. Since we live in a materialistic world, we must be careful not to lose our faith in God. In today's problems more than ever we should seek the power and comfort of prayer. Let us, members of the Class of 1958, pray that our efforts may not be in vain.

William J. Anderson, Jr.

SAFETY PATROL

The officers of the Safety Patrol were Joseph Augustini, President; Lynda Brown, Secretary; Ronald Chisholm, Treasurer; and Vincent Arminio, Patricia Proctor, Virginia Hayward, and Everett McCassey, Commissioners. Our advisor was Mr. Tassos Filledes.

The Patrol had an active year. The old armbands were replaced by badges; The Constitution was revised, and a roving patrol was introduced. Because of the increased student enrollment, it was necessary to elect several new members.

The Safety Patrol this year has done a commendable job in handling traffic in the corridors and enforcing traffic regulations within the school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council held its first meeting on September 8, 1957. Bruce Carter was elected president; David Morgan vice-president; and Susan Tozer secretary.

Under the appreciated supervision of Miss Rafferty who was succeeded by Mr. Shea on January 13, 1958, and Mr. Carlow, the council has revised the Red and Blue handbook, selected a recipient for the Jewish War Veterans Award "Classmates Today, Neighbors Tomorrow;" successfully sponsored the Homecoming and the Football dances; selected cheerleaders; served as guides on Parent's Night; sponsored the Junior Red Cross Enrollment Drive; and approved student body clubs.

In May the Student Council sent representatives to a convention sponsored by the Eastern Mass. Association of Student Councils held at Andover, Mass.

We would like at this time to publicly thank Miss Rafferty for the valuable guidance she has given the Natick High School Student Council for the past 25 years. She will be sorely missed by all of us.

H O N O R

The Natick Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in January for 1958. Seven senior members had been elected in their junior year and the remainder were admitted in January and May of 1958. This year there were thirteen junior members admitted, the largest number of juniors ever elected to the Society.

Membership certificates were presented at a very effective induction ceremony held at an assembly on May 16.

This year the members conducted a substitution program. Members of the Honor Society substituted for absent teachers when substitutes were not available. The members also tried to establish a treasury; however, the Honor Society is a nonprofit organization so it was not possible to conduct any fund-raising activities. Many suggestions were made that may help the Honor Society to be very active in years to come.

On May 27 the Natick Rotary Club entertained the senior members at luncheon.

THE SASSAMON

The Sassamon was well supported by the students this year with a record of 655 subscriptions.

The 1958 staff was carefully selected and a tea was held to announce the new editors and introduce the new members. The limitation of the size of the staff and its co-ordination into a more closely knit group has improved the style and type of reading matter which has gone into each issue. The Sassamon has introduced a number of new features and has provided coverage of all important school activities.

The Sassamon year was climaxed by the annual Sadie Hawkins' dance, which true to tradition was a great success.

Miss Hope, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. O'Sullivan were the Sassamon faculty advisors and the staff would like to express their appreciation for all their assistance.

MUSIC IN 1958

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph LoPresti the Natick High School Band has continued to serve the school, providing music at school functions. The marching band attended all football games, the Tech Tourney Basketball Play-offs, played at rallies, at the Transfer of Flag Ceremonies, and marched in the parade on Veterans' Day and Memorial Day.

The Concert Band played at assemblies so that students could march in and out to music. The members participated in two music assemblies and made an exchange trip to Walpole High. They were a main attraction at the Festival of Music.

The orchestra, a relatively small group, has not been included in all these activities. It did, however, take part in the Music Festival and one assembly.

The choruses, directed by Mr. Leo Bachini, have had a very busy year. The A'Capella Choir demonstrated its talent at the Christmas Assembly and at the Music Festival. The high point of the year was a trip to Arlington High School to give a concert.

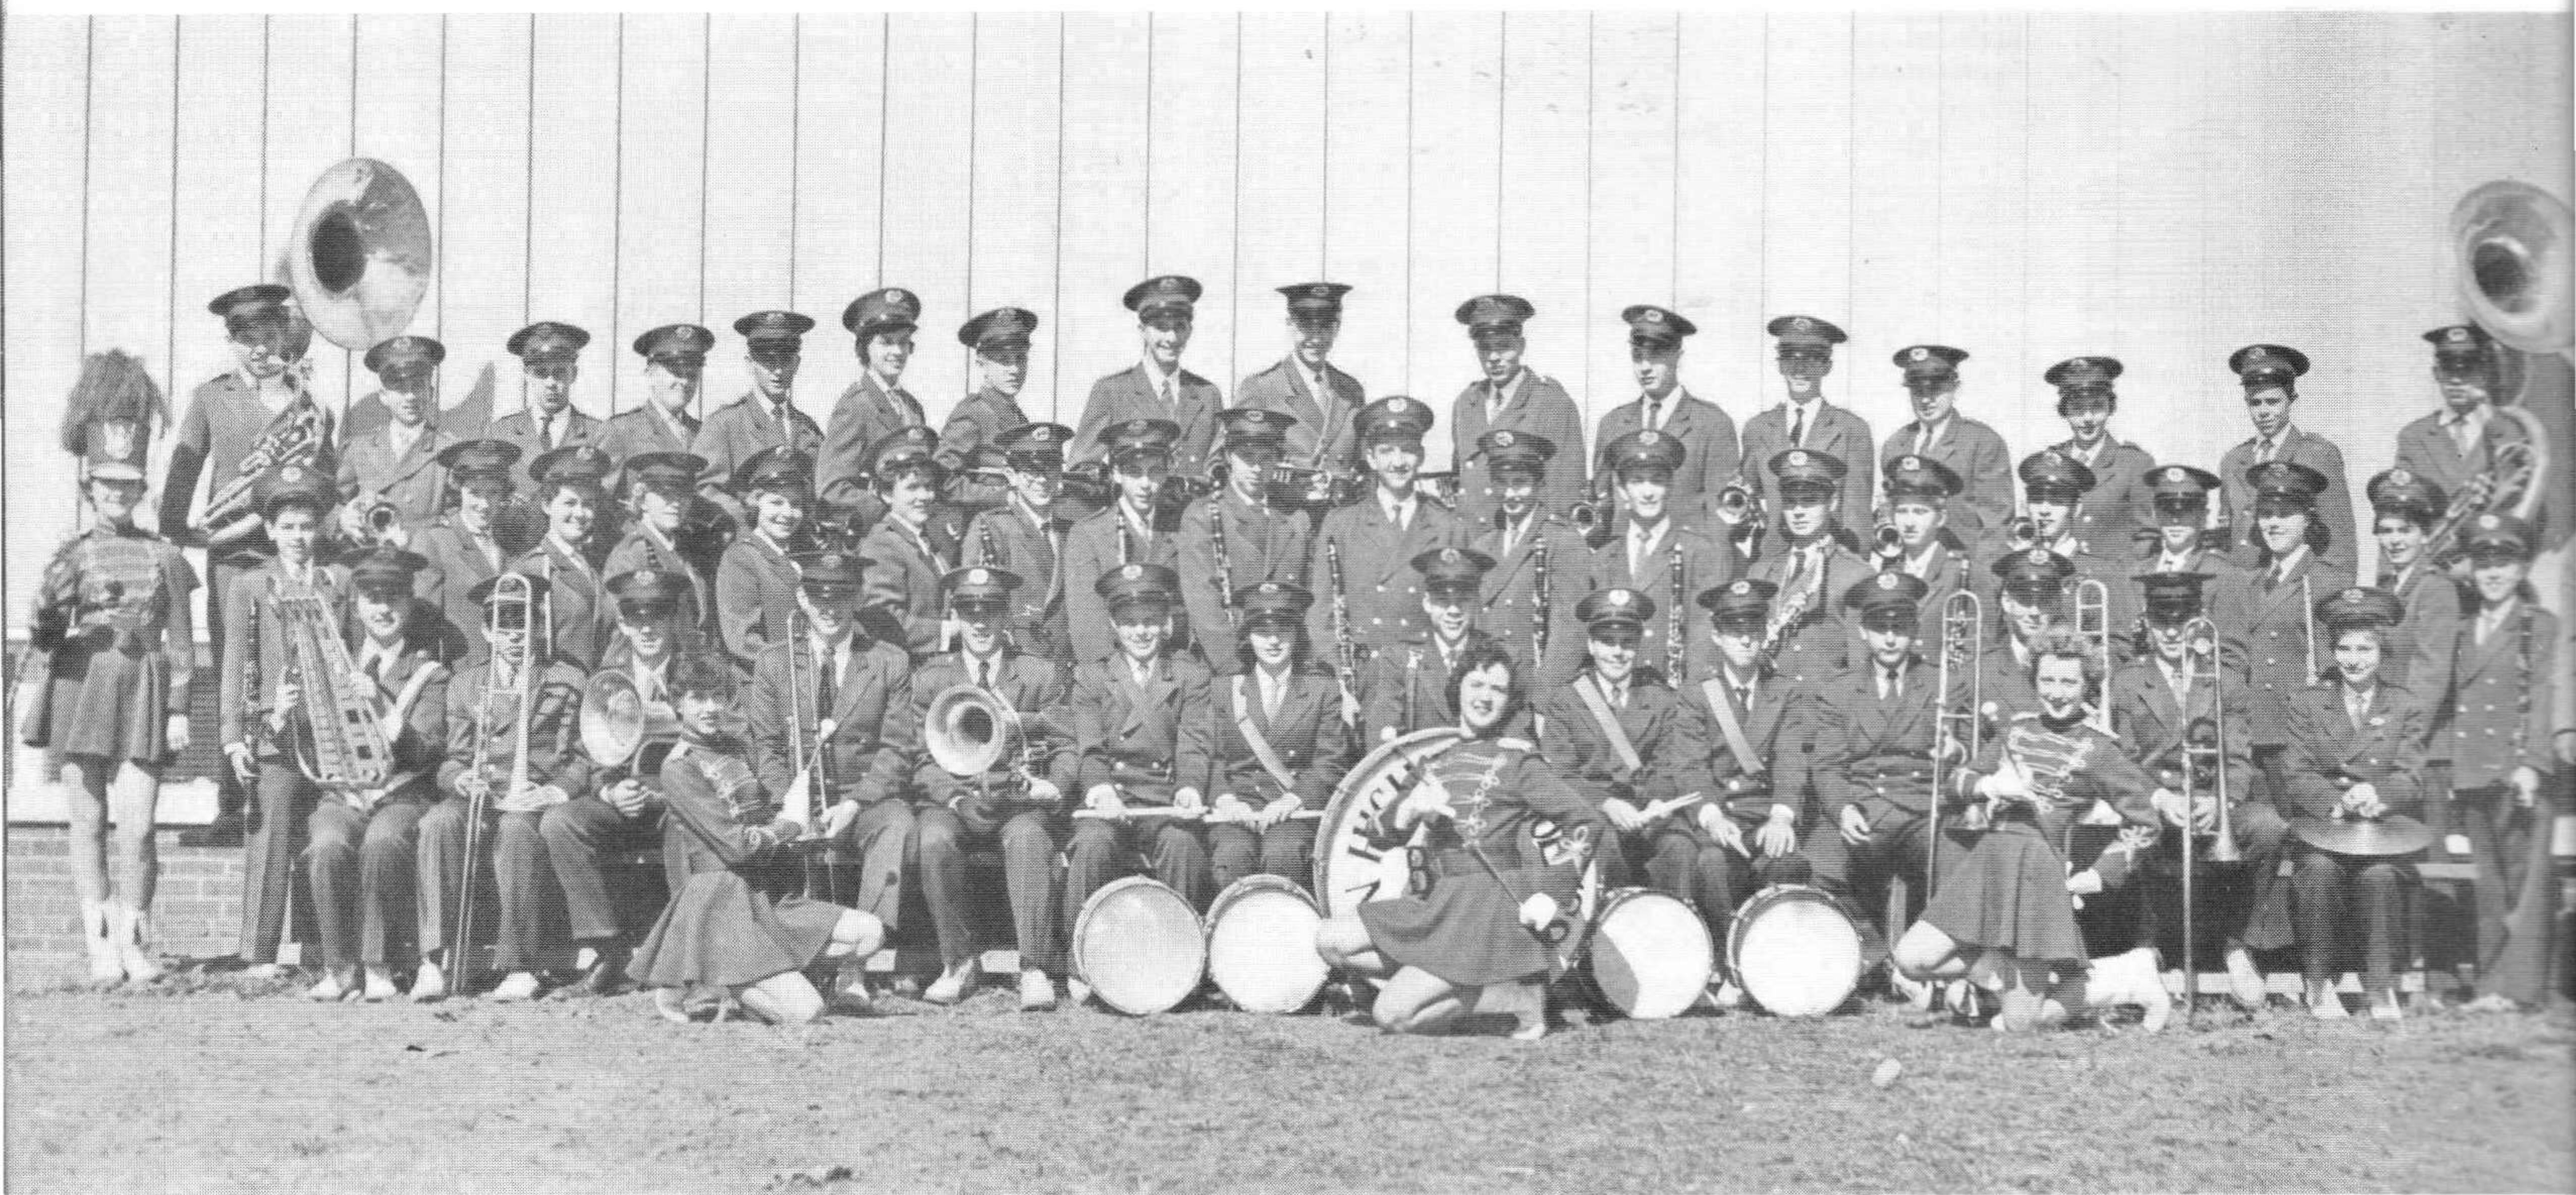

A new group at N.H.S., the Senior Six, made its debut at the Christmas Assembly. Since then the girls have become polished performers, singing for the Woman's Club and the Thirty-fifth Annual Conference of Secondary Principals. They also sang at the Music Festival and at Arlington.

The Girls' Glee Club of nearly two hundred voices appeared in the March Choral Assembly and the April Music Festival. Several members were chosen to sing at Arlington.

CHEERLEADERS

The attractive and energetic cheerleaders for the year were Nancy McKnight, Sue Tozer, Jean Ghilani, Peggy Kilroy, Pat Morgan and Charlene Pinkman, who, under the capable leadership of Kathy Bouret, cheered at all football and basketball games. The fine athletic record in these sports can be greatly attributed to the spirit and pep shown by the cheerleaders. The group won second place in the Bay State Cheerleader's competition, climaxing a very successful season.
